Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science with a Major in Integrative Studies

Create a degree plan unique to you!

Choose 3 fields of study that fit your interests, skills and goals.

Flexible — Tailored — Custom

Steps to Become an Integrative Studies major…

- Complete the “Getting Started in Integrative Studies” Canvas Course
- Choose the BA or BS degree and your three fields of study
- Submit your Major Proposal through Canvas
- Meet with an Integrative Studies Counselor to declare your major and start your degree audit

Make the Most of your Degree

- Choose your fields wisely – The strength of this major comes from integrating areas that support your unique interests, skills and future goals
- Know your transferable skills – You are gaining many skills from your multi-disciplinary degree. It is important to recognize and value these skills.
- Learn how to market yourself – Visit with the Career Center to learn how to market your degree, attend workshops and network at career fairs. To explore your career options, we offer a course: UCRS 2100 Career Development.
- Do an internship – Get hands on experience before you graduate by taking UCRS 4800!

What our alumni are saying…

“Given me a second chance to shape my education and future career the way I want it.”

“Integrative Studies was the answer to blend all my interests, talents, and skills into one meaningful career path.”

“My degree gave me the opportunity to study biology, psychology and rehabilitation, making me a diverse and unique candidate for medical school.”
